

Managing Disabled Volunteers

Training for Volunteer-involving Organisations

Tailor-made training for organisations looking to engage disabled volunteers and implement Inclusive Practices within their volunteer programmes

By popular demand!

This course is ideal for:

- Volunteer Managers / Coordinators • Heads of Departments • Team Leaders •
- Front line staff • HR / Equality Officers • Those supporting volunteers 'unofficially' •
- Individual volunteers •

Course benefits:

- Practical tools and solutions for inclusive practice
- Materials to promote organisational buy-in
- Successfully attract and recruit disabled volunteers
- Solutions and pro-active problem-solving
- Communicate confidently with disabled people
- Up-to-date disability language and etiquette tips
- Networking and information sharing
- Delivered by an experienced Trainer with personal insight of disability, volunteer management and inclusive best practice

'Our centre wants to work with more disabled volunteers and this training gave me a very informative basis to start from. The day was beneficial, value for money and high quality'
Gornal Children's Centre

'I liked the open forum where we could speak with the confidence that whatever we say would not be judged but seen as a way of developing practical ideas'
Kids, West Midlands

Wednesday 28th March 2012

10:15 – 4:30 pm

London, N7

Spacious fully accessible venue

£95 (Voluntary / Third Sector)

£45 (Volunteers / Not in Work)

£120 (Public / Private Sector)

25% discount on bookings made by Monday 5th March 2012

To book please email or call us:

inspiring-development@live.co.uk

07795 235243

www.theinspirationsconsultancy.co.uk

Find us on

(via the website 'quick links' tab)

Full and half day delivery within your organisation from £45 per person